

Employee Relocation under the Federal Acquisition Regulation (FAR)

Objective:

- Impart detailed familiarity with the regulations (FAR and FTR) that govern employee relocation for federal government contractors
- Walk students through their company or client relocation handbook(s)
- Identify on-line resources for additional information

Intended Audiences: Personnel of federal government contractors, or personnel of companies providing services to contractors, who manage financial or other aspects of relocation of contractor employees

Duration: About 5 hours in the classroom, depending on the size of the class and the range of materials provided by the customer

For More Information, or to Contract for this Course:
Contact Piedmont Maury Consulting (202-215-7927)

Table of Contents for the Student Manual:

Part	Page
1. Federal Regulations – FAR, FTR, JTR, DSSR, and FAM	1
2. Reasonableness and Allowability under the FAR	15
3. Twenty-two Allowances under the FAR	19
FAR and FTR Review Questions	35
4. Federal Per Diem Rates	37
Per Diem Review Questions	50
5. Time and Distance Requirements	53
6. Contractor #1 Comparison to the FAR – Domestic Relocations	57
Contractor #1 Review Questions	73
7. Contractor #2 Comparison to the FAR – Overseas Relocations	75
Contractor #2 Review Questions	91
8. Short-Term Assignments	93
Appendix 1: Residence Transaction Expenses Matrix	95
Appendix 2: FAR Text Relevant to Employee Relocation	109
Appendix 3: Table of Acronyms	119
Course Evaluation Form	121